Dear Sir,

As Anthropologist specialized in the civilization of the Range of the Hindu-Kush, I have been working in connection with the Museum of the University of Florence - Italy and the Volkerkunde Museum of Bern, Switzerland over the years from 1974 to 1981, doing frequent field research for them. During these travels I've had occasion to meet a few of the most prominent spiritual leaders who live in those countries: H.H. the Dalai Lama, Krisnamurti, Nem Keroli - Baba. Connection with these religious leaders happens also in a silent sit in their presence. The figure of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh shines brightly among these Masters, and silence isn't His only way. Tapes and books in abundance are available in every book store all over the world for just a few dollars.

I have met Him personally in 1981 and by Him I've been initiated as one of His Sannyasins.

There is no doubt for anyone interested in man's social behavior that Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh is a living Master and leader of a new religion.

Truely Yours,

Sw. Anand Nityamo
